BRIDGE AT CHESTER, PA., COLLAPSES UNDER LOAD; 34 DIE

TWO HUNDRED PERSONS ARE HURLED INTO STREAM WHEN SPAN BREAKS

25 ARE HURT AND 15 ARE MISSING—WORK OF RECOVERING BODIES PROCEEDS

Chester, Pa., Sept. 12.—Breaking of a steel plate which was weakened ten years ago, today was held responsible for the collapse of a steel bridge Saturday in which 35 persons lost their lives.

Although the bridge which broke under the weight of hundreds of people who watched the saving of a drowning child, had been pronounced safe previous to the accident, its condition did not warrant the holding of ten tons of humanity, Commissioner Freely said today.

Chester, Pa., Sept. 12.—Thirty-four persons are known to be dead, 25 injured and 15 bodies are supposed to be in Chester river as the result of the collapse of the footpath of a bridge over the river at 7:10 Saturday night.

The bridge collapsed when more than 200 men, women and children were watching the police drag the river for the body of a boy who had drowned there earlier in the evening.

Police and firemen are dragging the stream for more bodies.

Without warning the whole north end of the structure collapsed, crumbling the concrete abutment to bits. Of those thrown into the river, many managed to scramble to safety.

As soon as victims were recovered from the water they were rushed to hospitals in an effort to revive them. If efforts to revive them failed, the bodies were taken to a morgue to make room for more victims being brought in by ambulances and private automobiles.

All of the dead are residents of Chester except Mrs. Mamie Deitz, whose home is in Ashton, Pa.

More than a dozen persons taken from the creek were revived at hospitals by the use of pulmotors, police said.

Nets were placed across the creek just below where the accident took place so that no bodies which may still be in the water can drift down stream.

Police were working frantically late at night in an effort to ascertain whether there were more dead in the water.

The part of the bridge which collapsed was the foot walk. The bridge is made of iron with cobblestones and streetcar tracks in the center and foot walks on each side.

The accident occurred at a point where the river is 60 feet wide and of sufficient depth to permit coal barges to dock at the banks.

A large portion of the crowd on the bridge was composed of patrons of a motion picture theatre nearby which had just let out. When the crowd heard of the search for the drowned boy's body, scores of persons rushed to the bridge to look on. The theatre goers added to the already large crowd which had gathered, was too much of a strain on the structure.

TWO FEET OF SNOW IN SASKATCHEWAN

WINTRY WEATHER OVER 24 HOUR PERIOD CAUSES HEAVY DAMAGE TO CROPS

Winnipeg, Sept. 10.—Drenching rains which have suspended harvesting and threshing operations in practically every district in Saskatchewan, with wintry weather and snow in several places are reported throughout the province for the last 24 hours, causing great damage to standing and cut grain.

Reports from Swift Current state that two feet of snow had fallen in the storm, with the thermometer registering 20 degrees above. The snow is piled in huge drifts, and according to the reports this is the worst storm for this time of year, that has occurred in this district for 25 years.

The probable damage resulting from the present storm depends upon the weather of the next few days. Should cold, dry weather succeed the drenching rains, the damage to crops will be much mitigated. It hot weather is forthcoming the wheat in shock will sprout and the damage resulting will be enormous.

Outside of the terrific blizzard in the southwestern portion of the province and the light snows in the north, the character of the storm has been that of a particularly heavy rain.

FAMOUS COMEDIAN, FATTY ARBUCKLE, IS HELD FOR MURDER

ACCUSED OF BRUTALLY ASSAULTING VIRGINIA RAPPE WITH CRIMINAL INTENT

EVERY DETAIL OF BOOZE PARTY THAT CAUSED DEATH OF THE ACTRESS IS KNOWN

(By United Press.)

MOVIE SCANDALS

Arbuckle's play of violence, death, suicide and scandal in the movie world was brought to a climax in the death of Virginia Rappe.

Olive Thomas, popular American movie star, died in Paris from bi-chloride of mercury poisoning following a wild "party" in the Monte Marte district.

Zelda Crosby, young scenario writer, committed suicide by poisoning in New York after a tragic love affair with a movie producer.

A prominent movie magnate paid $100,000 hush money to prevent publicity as a result of a "girl and wine" revel at a roadhouse in Woburn, Mass., in honor of "Fatty" Arbuckle.

Nevada authorities started action to nullify Mary Pickford's divorce following her marriage to Douglas Fairbanks.

Charlie Chaplin was divorced on grounds of cruelty.

Geraldine Farrar and Lou Telleghran separated after a sensational quarrel.

San Francisco, Sept. 12.—"We have a complete case against Roscoe Arbuckle," Detective Captain Matheson announced today as the grand jury prepared to investigate the charges that the famous movie comedian feloniously assaulted and caused the death of Virginia Rappe, beautiful actress.

Arbuckle was held in jail today while police marshalled the evidence that will be introduced against him when the grand jury begins its probe tonight.

The charge against Arbuckle is causing the death of a human being while engaged in or attempting to engage in a felony. Under the California law this is first degree murder.

Matheson announced that every detail of what occurred at Arbuckle's "booze party" at the hotel St. Francis during Arbuckle's alleged assault on Miss Rappe said to have been taken place would be laid before the grand jury. Statements in the form of affidavits have been obtained from each person who was at the party, he said. "Absolutely the affidavits of those present correspond completely," declared Matheson. "There was no disagreement as to what took place. We have a complete case against Arbuckle in the statements as to what occurred behind the locked doors of his bedroom."

We will present the strongest evidence to show that by gross and criminal brutality Arbuckle is responsible for Miss Rappe's death.

All those who attended the fatal party will be called before the grand jury as witnesses. Arbuckle will also be summoned, but it is doubtful whether he will testify as his attorney has warned him to keep his mouth shut.

Witnesses were guarded by police today. While police did not tell the reason it was learned they feared the witnesses would be persuaded to refuse to give their evidence to the grand jury.

Arbuckle looked pale and there were lines of worry in his face as he rose today after the second night spent in a cell. The famous comedian who has made millions laugh merely shook his head dolefully when asked to make a statement. His chief counsel, Frank Dominguez has issued absolute orders against him uttering a word.

ARBUCKLE FILMS BARRED

St. Paul, Sept. 12.—Motion pictures of Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, or pictures produced by him, were barred today from twenty movie houses in St. Paul and Minneapolis controlled by Finkelstein & Rubin. Theo. Hayes, general manager of the string of theatres, said all scheduled showings of Arbuckle films have been cancelled.

Medford, Mass., Sept. 12.—Declaring that showing of Roscoe Arbuckle's pictures at motion picture theatres is an offense against the public morals, Mayor Haines today issued an order prohibiting the showing of any films in which the accused comedian plays any part.

buckle was formally charged with murder today.

Mrs. Bambina Maul Delmonte, a friend of Miss Virginia Rappe, with District Attorney Brady in Police Judge O'Brien's court shortly after 11 a. m. today, swore to a complaint charging Arbuckle with murdering Miss Rappe.

Mrs. Delmonte collapsed in the court room after swearing to the complaint.

District Attorney Brady followed the charge with an order forbidding shipment of Miss Rappe's body to Los Angeles.

Coroner T. W. B. Leland announced that the inquest would be started at 2 p. m. today.

These developments coming in rapid succession after a brief meeting in the office of District Attorney Brady between Brady and Mrs. Delmonte and Mrs. Speckels were taken to mean that Brady had determined upon a course of rapid prosecution.

Immediately afterward Arbuckle was summoned to the court room after Captain of Detectives Matheson had told Police Judge O'Brien he would not permit Arbuckle to waive the formality of appearing in court.

"All prisoners must be treated alike," Matheson insisted.

The complaint, sworn by Mrs. Delmonte, charges Arbuckle did "wilfully, unlawfully, feloniously and with malice aforethought kill and murder Miss Virginia Rappe, a human being."

The bailiff reported that Arbuckle still was conferring with his attorney.

"Court is adjourned for five minutes," snapped Judge O'Brien.

Then he gave the bailiff instructions to bring Arbuckle into court within that time and refused to permit any other prisoner to come in ahead of him.

"We won't show this man any favors here," O'Brien declared, plainly angry.

Tirade Against Movies.

New York, Sept. 12.—"The Arbuckle-Rappe case climaxing a long series of scandal is further proof that the movies are doing more to corrupt the morals of Americans than all other agencies combined," the Rev. John Roach Stanton, famous reformer, declared in an interview today.

Stanton said that the movies are "rotten from the top to bottom—managing, ideal and personnel," and asserted that "they are rapidly growing worse."

"Movie actors and actresses have been made into heroes and heroines for the boys and girls of this country," he said, "and as expected so many times they have been found to be unsound morally. The effect on the young people is obvious. What their heroes and heroines can do, they can do."

CHURCH CONFESSES TO DOUBLE MURDER FOR PACKARD CAR

POLICE SAY HE KILLED DAUGHTERTY AND AUSMUS FOR CAR TO SHOW OFF

(By United Press)
 Chicago, Sept. 12.—Search for accomplices of Harvey Church in the frenzied murder of Bernard J. Daughterty and Carl Ausmus, Packard motor car salesman, netted two suspects today.

Church confessed to binding and beating his two victims to death to obtain a $5,400 Packard machine. Conflicting statements led police to believe he did not commit the crimes unaided as he first stated.

Daughterty's body was found in the Desplaines river. His wrists had been handcuffed. Ausmus' body was found buried face downward in Church's garage.

Church said he killed the men "because someone had threatened to kill his father, mother and sister if he did not produce a touring car."

Police said he killed the salesman to obtain the car which he wanted to show off at Adams, Wisconsin, his home town, where he was arrested.

Thomas Daughterty, brother of one of the victims, left for St. Paul today with the body.

Believe Mother Assisted

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Authorities today said they believed Mrs. O. E. Church, aged mother of Harvey Church, confessed slayer of Bernard J. Daughterty and Earl Ausmus, Pack motor car salesman, assisted her son in burying the bodies of his victims. They declared however that they did not believe Mrs. Church took any part in the murder.

Detectives questioned the woman who has been on the verge of a nervous prostration.

Belief that Church had accomplices in his fiendish work was strengthened shortly after noon when Chief of Police Charles Filmore announced he had definitely learned that three women and two men were riding with Church on Thursday several hours after the killings. Detectives set out at once to round up members of the party.

SINN FEIN ACCEPT PARLEY INVITATION

PEACE OUTLOOK IN ERIN BRIGHTENS—DE VALERA WILL NOT ATTEND CONFERENCE

Dublin, Sept. 12.—The Sinn Fein cabinet Saturday night accepted Lloyd George's invitation to attend a new conference on the Irish question at Inverness, Scotland, on Sept. 20.

London, Sept. 12.—Reports from Dublin from both the government and the Irish republicans indicate there is a strong demand among the rank and file among the Sinn Feiners for acceptance of the government's invitation to a conference at Inverness by Dail Eireann at its meeting next Wednesday. It is pointed out by Irish representatives here that it is quite within the possibilities for the Irish to ignore the first paragraphs of Premier Lloyd George's letter and to accept an invitation to "ascertain how the association of Ireland with the community of nations known as the British Empire can best be reconciled with Irish national aspirations."

This is regarded as admitting discussion of every possible relationship, even that of a dual monarchy which is said to be the solution gaining favor among the moderate Irish.

A most significant sign is that the Irish press has recovered its voice and is talking for the first time with some show of independence. Every newspaper is urging acceptance.

It is stated in Dublin that Mr. De Valera will not accompany the delegation to Inverness but it will be led by Arthur Griffith.

Belfast is apprehensive over the ambiguity of the prime minister's last letter which might be interpreted as allowing the reopening of Ulster's position. This, the Ulsterites say, they will never consent to.

Dail Reply Enroute

Dublin, Sept. 12.—A carrier who is believed to be carrying the reply of the Irish cabinet to Lloyd George's invitation to a conference, left here today for Scotland. The Dail's reply was said to accept the invitation for conferences September 20.

Reply Contains Reservation.

London, Sept. 12.—The reply of the Dail Eireann's acceptance to the British invitation to a conference at Inverness Sept. 20 which was forwarded today, includes a reservation regarding the allegiance of Ireland to the British crown, the Evening News announced today.

The British cabinet's invitation expressly stipulates that Ireland remain within the empire.

Announced Officially

Dublin, Sept. 12.—Sinn Fein's reply to the British invitation to a conference at Inverness on Sept. 20 was forwarded today to Lloyd George, it was officially announced here. The note of Dail Eireann accepts the invitation.

It was reported here today that the Sinn Fein delegation to Inverness in September would be President Eamonn De Valera, Arthur Griffith, Robert Barton and Eskinie Childers.

The presence of De Valera at the head of the Sinn Fein delegation was a surprise in view of the fact that he was authoritatively reported to have ceded his place to Griffith.

100 DEAD LATEST ESTIMATE OF LOSS BY TEXAS FLOODS

RELIEF WORK IS UNDER WAY AND WRECKAGE IS BEING CLEARED—FINDING MORE DEAD

PROPERTY DAMAGE WILL SOON RUN MANY MILLIONS—GREAT STOCK LOSS

(By United Press)
 Dallas, Texas, Sept. 12.—The dead in the flood territory in central Texas will total more than 100, according to reports received today from the stricken area.

Bodies of 47 victims of floods of Friday and Saturday have been recovered at San Antonio. Relief work is now under way and clearing of wreckage under which more bodies may be found has started. Five were reported dead at Calvert and Bryan.

Georgetown reported two deaths. Wharton in her last report said the Colorado river, was still rising with one known dead and several missing. It was impossible to place an estimate on the property damage. Indications however from meagre reports are that it will run into millions of dollars because of loss of life, stock and buildings.

Fear as expressed today for the southern part of the state through which the mad waters which had damaged central Texas must pass.

20 Bodies Recovered at Taylor

Taylor, Texas, Sept. 12.—Bodies of 20 victims of Friday and Saturday's storm and resulting floods have been recovered here today. No one was willing to estimate how many more victims there were. Reports from surrounding territory showed confusion with damage running high and communication demoralized. Six negroes were known dead at Hearne.

Flood Toll 56 Killed, 36 Hurt, 20 Missing

San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 12.—Fifty bodies recovered, 36 injured and 20 missing is the known toll of last Friday night's flood which swept this city, according to official figures today. The property loss was also announced by the chamber of commerce as $8,000,000, following a careful survey of the entire flooded area.

Officials believed that with the tearing away of huge piles of debris at the junction of the International and Great Northern railroad tracks and Alazan Creek—fifty feet high and 300 yards wide—the total deaths will rise to 70 or 100. They estimated this mass of debris will yield up 20 to 50 bodies. Large forces of workers have been sent out to this and other piles of debris to search for bodies.

Coroner T. W. B. Leland announced that the inquest would be started at 2 p. m. today.

These developments coming in rapid succession after a brief meeting in the office of District Attorney Brady between Brady and Mrs. Delmonte and Mrs. Speckles were taken to mean that Brady had determined upon a course of rapid prosecution.

Immediately afterward Arbuckle was summoned to the court room after Captain of Detectives Matheson had told Police Judge O'Brien he would not permit Arbuckle to waive the formality of appearing in court.

"All prisoners must be treated alike," Matheson insisted.

The complaint, sworn by Mrs. Delmonte, charges Arbuckle did "wilfully, unlawfully, feloniously and with malice aforethought kill and murder Miss Virginia Rappe, a human being."

The bailiff reported that Arbuckle still was conferring with his attorney. "Court is adjourned for five minutes," snapped Judge O'Brien.

Then he gave the bailiff instructions to bring Arbuckle into court within that time and refused to permit any other prisoner to come in ahead of him.

"We won't show this man any favors here," O'Brien declared, plainly angry.

Tirade Against Movies.

New York, Sept. 12.—"The Arbuckle-Rappe case climaxing a long series of scandal is further proof that the movies are doing more to corrupt the morals of Americans than all other agencies combined," the Rev. John Roach Staton, famous reformer, declared in an interview today.

Staton said that the movies are "rotten from the top to bottom—managing, ideal and personnel," and asserted that "they are rapidly growing worse."

"Movie actors and actresses have been made into heroes and heroines for the boys and girls of this country," he said, "and as expected so many times they have been found to be unsound morally. The effect on the young people is obvious. What their heroes and heroines can do, they can do."

MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING RESULTS IN THE DEATH OF TWO MEN

SHOTS WERE FIRED FROM REVOLVER OWNED BY HIRED MAN, ONE OF THE DEAD

(By United Press.)

Albert Lea, Minn., Sept. 12.—Two are dead as a result of a shooting near here Sunday, and police today were mystified as to who fired the shots.

CHURCH CONFESSES TO DOUBLE MURDER FOR PACKARD CAR

POLICE SAY HE KILLED DAUGHTERTY AND AUSMUS FOR CAR TO SHOW OFF

(By United Press)

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Search for accomplices of Harvey Church in the frenzied murder of Bernard J. Daugherty and Carl Ausmus, Packard motor car salesman, netted two suspects today.

Church confessed to binding and beating his two victims to death to obtain a $5,400 Packard machine. Conflicting statements led police to believe he did not commit the crimes unaided as he first stated:

Daugherty's body was found in the Desplaines river. His wrists had been handcuffed. Ausmus' body was found buried face downward in Church's garage.

Church said he killed the men "because someone had threatened to kill his father, mother and sister if he did not produce a touring car."

Police said he killed the salesmen to obtain the car which he wanted to show off at Adams, Wisconsin, his home town, where he was arrested.

Thomas Daugherty, brother of one of the victims, left for St. Paul today with the body.

Believe Mother Assisted

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Authorities today said they believed Mrs. O. E. Church, aged mother of Harvey Church, confessed slayer of Bernard J. Daugherty and Earl Ausmus, Pack motor car salesman, assisted her son in burying the bodies of his victims. They declared however that they did not believe Mrs. Church took any part in the murder.

Detectives questioned the woman who has been on the verge of a nervous prostration.

Belief that Church had accomplices in his fiendish work was strengthened shortly after noon when Chief of Police Charles Falmore announced he had definitely learned that three women and two men were riding with Church on Thursday several hours after the killings. Detectives set out at once to round up members of the party.

close range in the temple and behind the ear. Physicians said it would have been impossible for either man to have inflicted two such wounds on himself. Only one revolver was found, a 32 caliber pistol owned by Pank. He had taken it from his home Saturday night saying he wanted to shoot woodchucks.

Police say Pank would not have been able to inflict two wounds on himself. They are investigating the theory that someone else did the shooting although five bullets had been fired from Pank's gun.

SINN FEIN ACCEPT PARLEY INVITATION

PEACE OUTLOOK IN ERIN BRIGHT. ENS-DE VALERA WILL NOT ATTEND CONFERENCE

Dublin, Sept. 12.—The Sinn Fein cabinet Saturday night accepted Lloyd George's invitation to attend a new conference on the Irish question at Inverness, Scotland, on Sept. 20.

London, Sept. 12.—Reports from Dublin from both the government and the Irish republicans indicate there is a strong demand among the rank and file among the Sinn Feiners for acceptance of the government's invitation to a conference at Inverness by Dail Eireann at its meeting next Wednesday. It is pointed out by Irish representatives here that it is quite within the possibilities for the Irish to ignore the first paragraphs of Premier Lloyd George's letter and to accept an invitation to "ascertain how the association of Ireland with the community of nations known as the British Empire can best be reconciled with Irish national aspirations."

This is regarded as admitting discussion of every possible relationship, even that of a dual monarchy which is said to be the solution gaining favor among the moderate Irish.

A most significant sign is that the Irish press has recovered its voice and is talking for the first time with some show of independence. Every newspaper is urging acceptance.

It is stated in Dublin that Mr. De Valera will not accompany the delegation to Inverness but it will be led by Arthur Griffith.

Belfast is apprehensive over the ambiguity of the prime minister's last letter which might be interpreted as allowing the reopening of Ulster's position. This, the Ulsterites say, they will never consent to.

Dail Reply Enroute

Dublin, Sept. 12.—A carrier who is believed to be carrying the reply of the Irish cabinet to Lloyd George's invitation to a conference, left here today for Scotland. The Dail's reply was said to accept the invitation for conferences September 20.

Reply Contains Reservation.

London, Sept. 12.—The reply of the Dail Eireann's acceptance to the British invitation to a conference at Inverness Sept. 20 which was forwarded today, includes a reservation regarding the allegiance of Ireland to the British crown, the Evening News announced today.

The British cabinet's invitation expressly stipulates that Ireland remain within the empire.

Announced Officially

Dublin, Sept. 12.—Sinn Fein's reply to the British invitation to a conference at Inverness on Sept. 20 was forwarded today to Lloyd George, it was officially announced here. The note of Dail Eireann accepts the invitation.

It was reported here today that the Sinn Fein delegation to Inverness in September would be President Eamonn De Valera, Arthur Griffith, Robert Barton and Erskine Childers.

The presence of De Valera at the head of the Sinn Fein delegation was a surprise in view of the fact that he was authoritatively reported to have ceded his place to Griffith.

100 DEAD LATEST ESTIMATE OF LOSS BY TEXAS FLOODS

RELIEF WORK IS UNDER WAY AND WRECKAGE IS BEING CLEARED—FINDING MORE DEAD

PROPERTY DAMAGE WILL SOON RUN MANY MILLIONS—GREAT STOCK LOSS

(By United Press)

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 12.—The dead in the flood territory in central Texas will total more than 100, according to reports received today from the stricken area.

Bodies of 47 victims of floods of Friday and Saturday have been recovered at San Antonio. Relief work is now under way and clearing of wreckage under which more bodies may be found has started. Five were reported dead at Calvert and Bryan.

Georgetown reported two deaths. Wharton in her last report said the Colorado river, was still rising with one known dead and several missing. It was impossible to place an estimate on the property damage. Indications however from meagre reports are that it will run into millions of dollars because of loss of life, stock and buildings.

Fear as expressed today for the southern part of the state through which the mad waters which had damaged central Texas must pass.

20 Bodies Recovered at Taylor

Taylor, Texas, Sept. 12.—Bodies of 20 victims of Friday and Saturday's storm and resulting floods have been recovered here today. No one was willing to estimate how many more victims there were. Reports from surrounding territory showed confusion with damage running high and communication demoralized. Six negroes were known dead at Hearne.

Flood Toll 56 Killed, 36 Hurt, 20 Missing

San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 12.—Fifty bodies recovered, 36 injured and 20 missing is the known toll of last Friday night's flood which swept this city, according to official figures today. The property loss was also announced by the chamber of commerce as $8,999,990, following a careful survey of the entire flooded area.

Officials believed that with the tearing away of huge piles of debris at the junction of the International and Great Northern railroad tracks and Alazan Creek—fifty feet high and 300 yards wide—the total deaths will rise to 70 or 100. They estimated this mass of debris will yield up 20 to 50 bodies. Large forces of workers have been sent out to this and other piles of debris to search for bodies.

Action Begun to Find Wealthy Slacker's "Pot of Gold"

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 12.—The federal government today started to "dig" for the famous Bergdoll "pot of gold." Court action asked that Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll, mother of Grover Bergdoll, millionaire Philadelphia slacker, be compelled to turn over to the government $105,000 in gold coin which she withdrew from the federal treasury in 1917, was instituted today in Philadelphia by Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian. Should the court hold the alien property custodian's demand for the gold to be a legal one, and Mrs. Bergdoll would refuse to produce it, she can be jailed or fined for contempt of court.

Pleasant Walks and Talks.

These nice Sunday walks, when two friends get to know one another so intimately; these Sunday-evening talks, when you gather by twos and threes in the freelight, and talk so freely; oh, what a power they are for good, if used aright; what a power for harm, if wasted or misused! No one wants you to force the conversation into an edifying channel; but one knows how to talk bifurcates, as it were, and how often there is a choice between high and low, wise and foolish, kindly and unkindly.—Elizabeth Wordsworth.

NEW LAW CONTROLS MENTAL CRIMINALS

Boston, Sept. 10.—The culpability of criminals, brought before the Massachusetts courts repeatedly for the same or similar offenses henceforth will rest on the offender's mental status. This will be determined by psychiatric examinations in accordance with a new law.

That the mental tests are not a variation of the familiar army or Binet formulas is explained by Dr. George MacPherson, assistant commissioner of the state department of mental diseases.

Such examinations readily reveal the subject's emotional and temperamental reaction, but, according to Dr. MacPherson, it is necessary when dealing with those of criminal tendencies to know what actual mental defects they may have, other than a mind that has merely failed to keep pace with the person's age.

In the methods to be employed by the state's psychologists a great deal more enters into the case. The subject's physical condition, heredity, his life during childhood and the succeeding stages of his life, to determine whether he has a mentality for which he really is not responsible, are the main factors used in reaching a conclusion.

If the patient is found to be in such a state, Dr. MacPherson said, then he will be placed in an institution where he will receive all possible care, but will be able to harm neither himself nor those with whom he comes in contact.

WADENA GOT 4. BRAINERD BLANK

Brainerd played Wadena at Wadena on Sunday and was blanked, the score reading 4 to 0 in favor of Wadena. The Wadena men pulled three scattered hits off of Moltad. Brainerd batters annexed six hits off Romning. The latter's team mate was Farr.

An argument ensued over the matter of paying expenses. The Wadena manager persisted in claiming the agreement was only on a 60-40 basis with no word about expenses. The Brainerd manager had arranged for the game through telephone conversations. There was no writing except a sportsman's word that Brainerd was to have its expenses paid.

Brainerd is now wise to the Wadena system and when another game is booked they will take a lawyer along to draft the agreement and stick seals all over it and will record it for safekeeping.

SEEKING TREATY WITH ALLIES ON MANDATES

(By United Press.)
Washington, Sept. 12.—The American government is working toward a treaty with the principal allied powers on the question of American interests in former enemy territory under mandates, it was definitely stated today at the state department.

Pleasant Walks and Talks.
These nice Sunday walks, when two friends get to know one another so intimately; these Sunday-evening talks, when you gather by twos and threes in the firelight, and talk so freely; oh, what a power they are for good, if used aright; what a power for harm, if wasted or misused! No one wants you to force the conversation into an edifying channel; but one knows how to talk bifurcates, as it were, and how often there is a choice between high and low, wise and foolish, kindly and unkindly.—Elizabeth Wordsworth.

Something That Is Cheap.
The director of the American Museum of Natural History announces that mastodon bones are a drug on the market and prices are down to nearly nothing. If you have been delaying your purchase of mastodon bones, now is the time to lay in a supply.

NOTED ODD FELLOWS IN CITY

Grand Chief Patriarch Redmond of Pipestone and Grand Scribe McDivitt of Minneapolis

GUEST OF HONOR TONIGHT

Encampment Members Expected from Staples, Motley, Aitkin, Crosby and Ironton

A most important night in local Odd Fellow history will be that on the occasion of the official visit of Grand Chief Patriarch G. S. Redmond of Pipestone and Grand Scribe M. H. McDivitt of Minneapolis at the local lodge Monday evening.

Encampment members are expected from Staples, Motley, Aitkin, Crosby and Ironton. Refreshments will be served by the Rebekahs.

NEW LAW CONTROLS MENTAL CRIMINALS

Boston, Sept. 10.—The culpability of criminals, brought before the Massachusetts courts repeatedly for the same or similar offenses henceforth will rest on the offender's mental status. This will be determined by psychiatric examinations in accordance with a new law.

That the mental tests are not a variation of the familiar army or Binet formulas is explained by Dr. George MacPherson, assistant commissioner of the state department of mental diseases.

Such examinations readily reveal the subject's emotional and temperamental reaction, but, according to Dr. MacPherson, it is necessary when dealing with those of criminal tendencies to know what actual mental defects they may have, other than a mind that has merely failed to keep pace with the person's age.

In the methods to be employed by the state's psychologists a great deal more enters into the case. The subject's physical condition, heredity, his life during childhood and the succeeding stages of his life, to determine whether he has a mentality for which he really is not responsible, are the main factors used in reaching a conclusion.

If the patient is found to be in such a state, Dr. MacPherson said, then he will be placed in an institution where he will receive all possible care, but will be able to harm neither himself nor those with whom he comes in contact.

WADENA GOT 4. BRAINERD BLANK

Brainerd played Wadena at Wadena on Sunday and was blanked, the score reading 4 to 0 in favor of Wadena. The Wadena men pulled three scattered hits off of Moltad. Brainerd batters annexed six hits off Ronning. The latter's team mate was Farr.

An argument ensued over the matter of paying expenses. The Wadena manager persisted in claiming the agreement was only on a 60-40 basis with no word about expenses. The Brainerd manager had arranged for the game through telephone conversations. There was no writing except a sportsman's word that Brainerd was to have its expenses paid.

Brainerd is now wise to the Wadena system and when another game is booked they will take a lawyer along to draft the agreement and stick seals all over it and will record it for safekeeping.

Keeping Books.

Leather bound books should be kept where the air is hot and dry and circulates freely enough to prevent the natural oil of the leather drying out too rapidly.

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN

Club Extends a Cordial Welcome to the Teachers of the City at Chamber of Commerce

NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT STAGED

Affair Entirely Informal, at 9 O'clock Grand March Announced, Street Fair Presented

The Business and Professional Women's Club is to be congratulated on the success of the welcome given the teachers of the city by them Friday evening at the Chamber of Commerce club rooms. The entertainment was unique in every detail, and the program and house committees have been complimented on all sides for the delightful features of the hospitality extended.

The affair was most informal. The style of entertainment was that of a street carnival, and on arriving the guests were handed little bags filled with pasteboard money. The president, Miss Harriet Engsborg, then directed them to the first booth, presided over by Jimmie, the balloon man (Pearl E. Falconer), where balloons and pennants were purchased. On these were written the names of those attending, so that no formal introductions were necessary. In fact, nothing formal could have lasted long in the crowd assembled, for they at once caught the spirit of the thing, and proceeded to make merry.

At nine o'clock the grand march was announced, though for many minutes weird sounds, snatches of melody, giggles and suppressed laughter from behind the velvet curtains heralded the advent of something quite out of the ordinary. And it was a motley bunch that burst from the billiard room as the opening chords of a rollicking tune were played.

First came the hurdy-gurdy man (Marie Adair) and his pet monkey (Dorothy Carmichael), followed by the club's jazz band. The leader of the band was Signa Carlson, and the supporting members were Sal Schellin, Jennie Nelson, Theo Jarboe, Margaret Johnson, Mabel Sheffield, Lydia Kline, Elsie Englund, Mary Bikki, Rose Anderson, Emma Kirsch, Hulda Kirsch, Hilfred Uddenberg and Isabele Worden.

Miss Sheffield played the snare drum, while Miss Anderson seemed perfectly at home in the use of two small frying pans, banged together with no small force. Miss Nelson shook the tambourines with spirit, and the other young women kept perfect time with horns, bells, ukuleles and other unusual musical instruments.

The band costumes were very attractive. Long capes of bright colored crepe paper, with pointed caps to match, were worn with pleasing effect. Across the back of each cape in huge black letters, was outlined the one word, "Jazz". A printed slip on the front of each cap bore the initials of the club and the word, "Band".

Next in the line of march came the club's quartette, consisting of Jennie Nordberg, in a Dutch costume, Esther Fogelstrom, dressed as a sailor, and Mabel Olson and Bertha Olson in real Swedish costumes. Jennie Beck, their accompanist, dressed as a boy scout, was at the piano.

Following the quartet came Margaret Stoner as the Yama Yama girl, Esther Freedstrom as a gypsy, Myrtle Smith, ticket taker at the Bowery dance (a swell dresser), Eula Michael the ice cream cone man, in a white linen suit and cap, Marie Grimes as the pop-corn man, in a most becoming outfit, and Agnes V. Peterson as the nigger baby.

The procession circled the hall several times, amid the applause of the guests, and then broke rank, and everyone started for the Bowery dance. This was held in the billiard room, which was appropriately decorated with evergreen trees.

A diversion was given the dancers by the nigger baby, who offered her dusky beauty as a target to all who would invest the necessary fee. A number of guests tried their skill with the balls but most of the throws went wild. However, a few strikes were made, but these did not seem to bother the nigger baby much. (How could they, when the target was a dummy head, supported by a stick?)

While dancing was in progress, fortunes were told at the sides of the fireplaces, where mysterious and fascinating booths had been arranged. Oriental rugs and cushions were placed for the comfort of the guests, while owls and witches gave a weird effect. Incense burned in iron pots and issued from the mouth of a sphinx-like Buddha, perfuming the air. Mrs. C. J. Husted was the fortune teller, and Miss Esther Freedstrom, in gypsy costume, guarded the privacy of the sanctum.

Miss Macphail found a ready sale for her ice cream cones, and her arm became so tired dishing out the frozen pyramids that she was relieved for a time by the hurdy-gurdy man and his monkey. The monkey took in the money, and it was reported that she cheated scandalously, a number of persons being short-changed. Every chance the monkey got she strayed to the wagon of the pop-corn man, only to be recalled by a sharp word from her Italian master. The hurdy-gurdy man's moustache was much admired by the ladies, and all admitted he had a very dashing manner.

The pop-corn man did a thriving business, and was assisted by Miss Kline and Miss McColl, who sold the pop-corn from baskets.

Mrs. Roth had the sweetest of all the occupations—that of selling home-made candy. Her table was very popular, the guests treating each other to fudge and divinity.

All the sweet entables caused an intense thirst, which was promptly allayed by Miss Georgia Frost, who dispensed lemonade from an attractive corner decorated with pine boughs and Autumn leaves. As the evening wore on an S. O. S. call was sent out for more liquids, and the punch bowl was replenished with ginger ale. Not that the guests needed more ginger, but that the auctioneer's throat might be in good form to raffle off the pet hen furnished by the club for that purpose.

Chances on the hen had been sold during the evening by Etta Johnson, and while the guests rested from their dancing the raffle was held, the monkey drawing the numbers from a box. Miss McColl gave the following talk on the hen:

"Ladies and gentlemen (?): This is Priscilla, a Plymouth Rock hen, whose ancestors came over in the good ship Mayflower. The finest thing that can be said of her is that she is of an American breed! (Applause.) First of all I wish to call your attention to the comfortable, well ventilated coop. This coop is the work of a few members of the club, and furnishes a fitting temporary home for Priscilla. She is fond of a nice home, but is a little fussy about what she eats. She is very popular with the poultry packer, not to speak of gentlemen of the colored race.

"It is said of her that, when dressed, she shows a well-rounded and compact form. Her toilet articles are rather meager, for she has but one comb. Another thing, she takes on fat with age, but that can be noticed among the human family. (However, I do not speak from personal experience.)

"Priscilla lays beautiful dark brown eggs (brown is so stylish this fall), three eggs a day—one for breakfast, one for dinner and one for supper. Food need be no problem, with Priscilla in the back yard. All in all, she is a most unusual hen, though she has a few drawbacks, which, to be entirely honest, I must state:

"She had a relative who was so silly she tried to hatch out tennis balls and china eggs. I speak of Emily, the hen made famous by Owen Wister's novel, 'The Virginian.' And then another thing, though not of the Mormon faith, Priscilla is said to favor double mating, but I presume a reasonable time is allowed for divorce.

"In closing, let me say that true to her sex, she makes a good deal of a fuss over a small thing, and when laying an egg, the whole neighborhood is aroused; but do not be deceived, she lays but one egg at a time. I thank you."

The drawing then proceeded. At the thirteenth draw, Mabel Sheffield won the hen, holding the lucky number, nine. Friends quickly surrounded her, and the hen was viewed with interest.

As the time was nearing midnight, the guests gathered around the piano and a number of songs were sung, ending with "Good Night Ladies," and "Home Sweet Home." The guests expressed themselves delighted with the festivities, and warmly thanked the members of the club for their hospitality. It is to be hoped that the cordiality extended to the teachers on this occasion will be continued throughout the year.

NONPARTISAN LEAGUE PREDICTION

The Red Wing Daily Eagle says that some politicians predict that the Nonpartisan League in Minnesota will be absorbed by the Democratic party within the next two or three years. We do not think so. When the Nonpartisan League goes to pieces, which it inevitably will and at no distant date, the members will either return to one or the other of the two old parties, depending largely on individual predilection, or what is more likely, they will affiliate with some new radical party which will probably come into existence. It is not likely, therefore, that the disintegration of the League will have any great influence in politics.

THE DEMOCRATIC IDEA

The manufacture of film for Kodaks, motion picture cameras, etc., is one of the great industries of the United States. One of the many big firms manufacturing films in the United States pays taxes to the amount of $5,000,000 a year. Firms in Europe manufacturing a similar product are permitted to ship the film in free of duty, keeping the selling price just under the American price and putting in their own pockets the huge profits incident to their lower costs of production. That is the Democratic idea of a Federal System of taxation—taxing the American but not the foreigner who takes advantage of a good American market. Watch the Republicans change the plan when Congress reconvenes.

NEW IMMIGRATION LAW

It is understood that permanent immigration legislation will be considered by the House Immigration committee immediately after the present recess. Chairman Johnson predicts that the law which will supplant the emergency act next June will provide for the selection of immigrants by American consular agents abroad, continuation of the percentage restrictions by nations and provision for voluntary registration of immigrants as they arrive and of aliens already in the United States.

MOTOR VEHICLE LICENSES

During the month of August the sales of motor vehicle licenses in Minnesota netted $704,347.19, making the total for the year from automobile licenses $5,317,717.81 up to Sept. 1st. Approximately 330,000 licenses have been issued this year, showing increases in all classes of motor vehicles with the exception of motorcycles, of which there are only 3,500 licensed. At one time there were about four times that number in the state.

Courtesy is a word that must appear in the lexicon of every postal employee, under an order issued by the Postmaster General. "Proper courtesy," says the order, "does not retard, but expedites business, and the employee who exercises, unflinchingly, courtesy throughout each hour of each day's work, renders more in service than can be measured as 'hours of duty.'"

Secretary Hoover thinks the unprecedented exports of wheat in August should react favorably on agricultural and business conditions throughout the country. According to his reports wheat exports the last month amounted to 33,595,000 bushels, or about four times the volume of any pre-war figures for the month of August.

At the suggestion of Gov. Preus the State Board of Relief promptly authorized the issuance of $15,000 of certificates of indebtedness to be sold to the State Investment Board and made immediately available for the relief of fire sufferers of White Pine and vicinity.

PARIS CATACOMBS REOPEN AFTER WAR

By EDWIN W. HULLINGER,
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
Paris. (By Mail.)—Unique among historical show-places in the world and famed for centuries on both continents, the catacombs of Paris were recently reopened to visitors, having been closed six years on account of the war.

The celebrated tombs, undisturbed by human visitation while the world was busy fighting above, have been a popular drawing point for the big influx of American tourists in Paris this summer. Long lines of Yankees form regularly outside the gates the two afternoons a month the catacombs are open.

Forty paces underground, in a labyrinth of corridors are skeletons of three million of Paris dead, neatly piled in rectangular stacks against the walls of the passageway or cleverly arranged in all manner of artistic patterns, mosaics, and designs, giving the interior of the death compartments an atmosphere of the uncanny that would be hard to duplicate.

Many of the patterns were most elaborate and cleverly drawn. On one wall was a huge spider, its body formed of skulls, its legs of crossbones. On others, skulls were grouped in beautiful crosses, against a background of crossbones.

In a miniature chapel, built of bones, sat a complete skeleton, on a bench made of bones, his lower jaw dropped in a devil-may-care grin. In another compartment was a hearth, constructed from bones, with a mantelpiece of skulls.

The catacombs owe their origin to the necessity of finding stone for the building of Paris. They served as nurseries for years until, in 1784, a government decree ordered the "evacuation" of several large public burying grounds which had become overcrowded. The authorities began by removing bodies in tombs where families had failed to keep up the rents—in France most burial plots are rented, not purchased, as in America. The practice was repeated from time to time, until the catacombs became the dumping place for all Parisian pauper burying grounds.

SOLVE MYSTERY OF 'COTTON HILL' WITCH

(By United Press.)
Springfield, Ill., Sept. 10.—Sangamon county big "witch" mystery was declared solved today.
Authorities reported that the phantom, white-robed figure that has been striking fear nightly to the hearts of motorists on the "Cotton Hill" road, is that of a country girl, who is "partly out of her head."

Under this explanation the dramatic actions of the "Cotton Hill Witch" who has sent scores of badly "scared" motorists speeding to this city with reports to the police, become only the caprices of a farm girl.

The figure appears almost nightly, near midnight. Motorists passing "Cotton Hill" suddenly find their path blocked by a white figure astride a white horse and carrying aloft a long rod. "Danger lies ahead—turn back!" the figure cries, then whirls and dashes off into the night.

Motorists, thus confronted, promptly attain a degree of fright which bring them dashing back to Springfield.

The authorities doubted the stories at first but finally decided to investigate. Sheriff's deputies drove to "Cotton Hill" were confronted by the white figure and followed it, they say, to a farm house where they learned the mysterious person was a young girl. They did not molest her, and will not, they say, unless some real harm comes from her practice. "It's her play—let her have it," is the view the investigators took.

Wild Animals in Colorado

(By United Press)

Denver, Sept. 12.—That Colorado is still a wild animal state is shown in the annual report of the bureau of markets of the United States department of agriculture, just made public.

The report shows that in the last fiscal year, six bears, one mountain lion, 686 coyotes, 17 wolves and 310 other predatory animals were shot, trapped or poisoned by the department's animal division. The saving to livestock growers was estimated at $96,300. The cost of killing 1,019 animals was $27,489, or about $27 a head.

The extermination program for this year is an extensive one, the department announced, and hunters will be kept in one locality until every wolf and mountain lion there is trapped or poisoned.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Lyceum Theatre

Fond of all outdoor sports, particularly tennis and golf, it was with real reluctance that Alice Joyce, star of the Vitaphone special production, "The Vice of Fools," was compelled to leave the links while a game was being played during the filming of that production under the direction of Edward Griffith.

The latter, believing in thoroughness and detail in even the most inconsequent of scenes, insisted that to get the proper atmosphere during the scene, the participants must actually play a game of golf, and that during the game the necessary scenes would be "shot." So it was that Miss Joyce and Robert Gordon, her leading man, and two other members of the cast entered a foursome on the beautiful links of the Siwanoy Country club near Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Larry Semon in "The Hick" at the Lyceum Theatre Tonight

Contrasts, the foundation of humor, have been delicately executed in this production. It carries the spectator from a riot of fun in a farm yard to more laughs in the city's gilded cafes.

Farm comedies have been done, but Larry gets more out of his opening sequence in the ranch yard than any of his contemporaries. When the villain takes the country lass to the city, Larry, who follows, introduces his fans to the magnificent settings for which he is famous. Beautiful girls galore are to be seen amid the brilliant surroundings and all leads up to an explosive finish that marks "The Hick" as one of the most sure fire comedies ever produced. At the Lyceum tonight and Tuesday.

A new western serial with Wm. Duncan is to start at the Lyceum next Friday and Saturday.

At the New Park Theatre

Betty Compson, who meteoric rise to stardom was the result of her remarkable portrayal of the role of the girl in the George Loane Tucker production of "The Miracle Man," makes her initial stellar appearance in "Prisoners of Love," which will be presented at the New Park theatre beginning today. The picture was personally produced by Miss Compson, who is now at the head of her own company and was directed by Arthur Rosson.

The story is taken from one of the works of Catherine Huerly, and contains innumerable tense dramatic situations which give Miss Compson the fullest opportunity to display her remarkable versatility. The action carries her through the complete range of human emotions, and her first production stamps her as one of the really great actresses of the screen.

As Blanche Davis, Miss Compson portrays the role of a girl born of wealthy and cultured parents, and cursed through inheritance with a dangerous degree of physical attractiveness. Discovering her father buying the silence of an adventuress who has become part of his life, Blanche leaves home and distains even the use of her father's great name. She flees to San Francisco, where she obtains employment in the law offices of Martin Blair and James Randolph. The latter seeks to marry her, but his mother, an invalid since his birth, selfishly compels her to promise that she will not take her son from her until after her death.

Death's swift intervention fails to solve the riddle of "Prisoners of Love," and the best work of many present dramatists seems childish compared with the magnificent gesture with which the picture ends.

Wild Animals in Colorado

(By United Press)

Denver, Sept. 12.—That Colorado is still a wild animal state is shown in the annual report of the bureau of markets of the United States department of agriculture, just made public.

The report shows that in the last fiscal year, six bears, one mountain lion, 686 coyotes, 17 wolves and 310 other predatory animals were shot, trapped or poisoned by the department's animal division. The saving to livestock growers was estimated at $96,300. The cost of killing 1,019 animals was $27,489, or about $27 a head.

The extermination program for this year is an extensive one, the department announced, and hunters will be kept in one locality until every wolf and mountain lion there is trapped or poisoned.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Lyceum Theatre

Fond of all outdoor sports, particularly tennis and golf, it was with real reluctance that Alice Joyce, star of the Vitaphone special production, "The Vice of Fools," was compelled to leave the links while a game was being played during the filming of that production under the direction of Edward Griffith.

The latter, believing in thoroughness and detail in even the most insignificant of scenes, insisted that to get the proper atmosphere during the scene, the participants must actually play a game of golf, and that during the game the necessary scenes would be "shot." So it was that Miss Joyce and Robert Gordon, her leading man, and two other members of the cast entered a foursome on the beautiful links of the Sivanoy Country club near Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Larry Semon in "The Hick" at the Lyceum Theatre Tonight

Contrasts, the foundation of humor, have been delicately executed in this production. It carries the spectator from a riot of fun in a farm yard to more laughs in the city's gilded cafes.

Farm comedies have been done, but Larry gets more out of his opening sequence in the ranch yard than any of his contemporaries. When the villain takes the country lass to the city, Larry, who follows, introduces his fans to the magnificent settings for which he is famous. Beautiful girls galore are to be seen amid the brilliant surroundings and all leads up to an explosive finish that marks "The Hick" as one of the most sure fire comedies ever produced. At the Lyceum tonight and Tuesday.

A new western serial with Wm. Duncan is to start at the Lyceum next Friday and Saturday.

At the New Park Theatre

Betty Compson, who meteoric rise to stardom was the result of her remarkable portrayal of the role of the girl in the George Loane Tucker production of "The Miracle Man," makes her initial stellar appearance in "Prisoners of Love," which will be presented at the New Park theatre beginning today. The picture was personally produced by Miss Compson, who is now at the head of her own company and was directed by Arthur Rosson.

The story is taken from one of the works of Catherine Hnery, and contains innumerable tense dramatic situations which give Miss Compson the fullest opportunity to display her remarkable versatility. The action carries her through the complete range of human emotions, and her first production stamps her as one of the really great actresses of the screen.

As Blanche Davis, Miss Compson portrays the role of a girl born of wealthy and cultured parents, and cursed through inheritance with a dangerous degree of physical attractiveness. Discovering her father buying the silence of an adventuress who has become part of his life, Blanche leaves home and distains even the use of her father's great name. She flees to San Francisco, where she obtains employment in the law office of Martin Blair and James Randolph. The latter seeks to marry her, but his mother, an invalid since his birth, selfishly compels her to promise that she will not take her son from her until after her death.

Death's swift intervention fails to solve the riddle of "Prisoners of Love," and the best work of many present dramatists seems childish, compared with the magnificent gesture with which the picture ends.

BRAINERD'S ODDEST STORIES OF TODAY

"You ought to see some of those roads in Iowa", said Joe Hebert, who toured there. "The map, for instance, shows the air line distance five miles to a town. It doesn't show half a dozen hills which increase the distance five miles. Some of those hills seem to have a sheer drop of 250 feet. You switch back down to the bottom, run a half a block and then work hard to get to the top. When you're on top, you repeat for five more hills."

"SOONERS" SHOOTING PATRIDGES TAKEN

Deputy Game Wardens A. P. Cardle of Brainerd and Bert Goff of Aitkin, Break Up Party

4 IOWANS ARE FINED $50 EACH

Three Partridges Were Shot by Nimrods, Four Valuable Shotguns and Rifle Seized

In all the annals of hunting by "sooners", no more disastrous experience was recorded than by a party of four Iowa men who were taken in custody by Deputy Game Wardens A. P. Cardle of Brainerd and Bert Goff of Aitkin at Browns lake, 15 miles north of Aitkin.

From 5 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the evening, the game wardens lay in a swamp waiting for shots. During that time the vigilant wardens ate but one sandwich and were without a drink of water.

Then started a fusillade and it seemed as though another row had broken out in France, said Cardle. Down came a number of partridges. The wardens sprang from concealment and the hunting party came to an abrupt end. Before Judge J. C. Hestian of Aitkin the hunters paid fines and costs as follows: James M. Anthony of Strawberry Point, Iowa, fine $50 and costs $8. Clyde Shellady of Iowa City, Iowa, fine $50 and costs $8. James Luscombe of Iowa City, Iowa, fine $50 and costs $8. M. L. Deatin of Iowa City, Iowa, fine $50 and costs $8.

Three partridges killed were introduced as evidence. Four shotguns and a rifle were seized and sent to the game and fish department. The shotguns were of finest pattern, one being valued at $150.

MINISTER IN A QUANDARY TODAY

Rev. Arthur C. Smith to Lose His Home, 709 North Sixth Street, Rented from Owner

OWNER RETURNS TO BRAINERD

Minister Says if He Cannot Rent Another House, Will Be Compelled To Sell His Furniture

Rev. Arthur C. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist church, is in a quandary today. For a period he has had a commodious home in the house rented from Mrs. William Murray and located at 709 North Sixth street. Mrs. Murray has decided to move to Brainerd and occupy her house and the minister is without a home for himself and family.

He has vainly searched Brainerd from end to end, looking for a suitable house to rent, and has been unsuccessful in his quest. The First Baptist church has no parsonage.

He tried to rent the parsonage of St. Paul's Episcopal church, but it could not be obtained. He tried getting rooms in other parsonages and was equally unsuccessful.

"I may be compelled", said Rev. Smith, "to sell most of my furniture and take a flat."

Residences are being built in Brainerd, but all "have been spoken for". So eagerly are houses sought in Brainerd that in some cases matrimony hinges on getting a house. For instance, one couple put off the wedding today until they were assured of renting a home.

It is hoped that in a quandary like this, real estate dealers, house builders, etc., may get together and see that a house is found for Rev. Smith and his family.

Berlin Livelier Than Paris, Germany Most Prosperous European Nation, Says Dr. Wright, Home From Tour

Minneapolis, Sept. 12—Berlin is the most gay city of Europe, more gay even than Paris, and conditions generally are more prosperous in Germany than in France, England or the Scandinavian countries, according to Dr. Swan G. Wright, 2650 Dupont Ave. N., who has just returned from a three months tour of western and northern Europe.

Dr. Wright was one of the first American tourists to enter Germany by passport after the signing of peace between that country and the United States. From the time peace was signed, American tourists have been flocking into Germany in great numbers, Dr. Wright said.

"I found Germany prosperous in every sense," he said. "Factories were running double shift, there is plenty of work for everybody, and plenty of money to spend. The night life of Berlin is very gay, despite the fact the terms imposed by the Allies require the closing of cafes at 10:30 p. m. That rule is being broken by many cafes, operating secretly and admitting guests only by invitation.

"Prices are not nearly as high in Germany as in France and the Scandinavian countries. Good hotel accommodations may be obtained in Germany at $1.50 a day, whereas the cost in France for the same accommodations is $5.

"German manufacturers are underbidding all other European countries in the making of goods of all kinds, so that in other countries, notably Sweden and Norway, factories are idle everywhere, and great numbers of laborers are unemployed."

Sweden is suffering from financial and industrial depression due to the war, Dr. Wright said. Factories everywhere in Sweden are idle and there is great discontent among the working classes. Food is not scarce, but it is very high in price. The report that numerous fortunes were made by Sweden manufacturers in the war is no longer true, because fully half the millionaires lost everything when the armistice was signed, he said.

"I was particularly impressed with the poverty in England," said Dr. Wright. "England appears to be poorer and more unsettled industrially than any other country. Prices are not so high as in France, but there is great discontent among labor."

Steals Only From Standard Oil Co.

(By United Press)

Portland, Ore., Sept. 12—There's a highwayman working in Portland who has a sense of humor. He robs only Standard Oil gasoline filling stations, and will not take money from the men who tend the pumps.

Never has this robber been known to waylay a lonesome pedestrian; never has he burglarized a house; never has he sought to garner his precarious proceeds from the filling stations of gasoline companies competing with Standard Oil.

This unique holdup man made his debut in Portland, and then moved to California, where he was caught red-handed and served his term. When he completed his term, "Coal-Oil Johnnie," as he is known to the detective bureau of the Portland police department, resumed his operations in Portland.

Merrily he goes his way. It goes something like this:

"Open the cash register," suavely remarks an unmasked figure, punctuating his order to the filling-station man with a blue revolver.

The man on the job opens the register, and also turns out his pockets. Keys rattle. "Coal-Oil Johnnie" transfers John D.'s money from the register to his own capacious pocket, and thanks the station man.

"Keep your money," he says jovially. "Can't you leave me some cash to open business with in the morning?" asked the P. S. M.

"Oh, Jawn Dee will take care of that. Goo' night."

And away he goes. "Oh, it's somebody who has a grudge against the company," said Lieut. Pat Malone, of the detective force.

Foreign Trade

Washington, Sept. 12—For the first time since the Harding administration began its campaign to end the business depression American foreign trade shows improvement, according to official figures announced by the department of commerce today.

During the month of August the United States had a trade balance of $181,000,000. Imports were $194,000,000, an increase over June and July. Exports were $375,000,000, the largest amount since March this year.

IRISH PARLIAMENT TO ACCEPT PREMIER'S CONFERENCE OFFER

(By United Press.)

Dublin, Sept. 12.—Sinn Fein will send Arthur Griffith, Professor MacNeill, Ralph Barton and possibly one or two others as district delegates to Inverness to confer with the British cabinet committee, it was learned on the best authority today.

The Dail has virtually decided to accept the invitation of Lloyd George for the conference, despite extremists' objections to the condition that Ireland must remain within the empire. The truce was said to be endangered today by the kidnapping of two constables at Bordon following the shooting of a civilian last night.

SEEKING SECRETS OF MELLOW OLD VIOLINS

(By United Press.)

Norwalk, O., Sept. 12.—Musicians for years have wondered why many old Italian violins, apparently made in a slipshod manner, should produce such clear sounds.

N. C. Holcomb, musical instrument maker, believes he is making rapid advances in his efforts to discover the secret of the fine, mellow tones of the Cremona violins.

Holcomb believes that the lost secret had to do mainly with the filler and varnish. He was informed that a careful chemical analysis had been made of some of the finish on a famous old violin owned in Battle Creek, Mich.

This examination disclosed the fact that before the varnish was applied, the wood was filled, evidently with the yolk of an egg and beeswax.

Profiting by this information, Holcomb rubbed these substances into the raw wood of a new violin before applying the varnish. The results achieved were surprising, the instrument producing a tone that is usually associated with age.

Holcomb, by using the tops of old tables and other furniture, obtains maple wood 100 years or more old.

Holcomb says that he has found out that if varnish is applied to a violin before the proper filler has been used, the varnish penetrates the cells of the wood and injures the tone.

Styles for A New Season

At the threshold of a new season, a woman's thoughts naturally turn to styles. Brilliant minds and clever hands have been busy for many months, designing and fashioning models which will delight the feminine eye and gladden the heart.

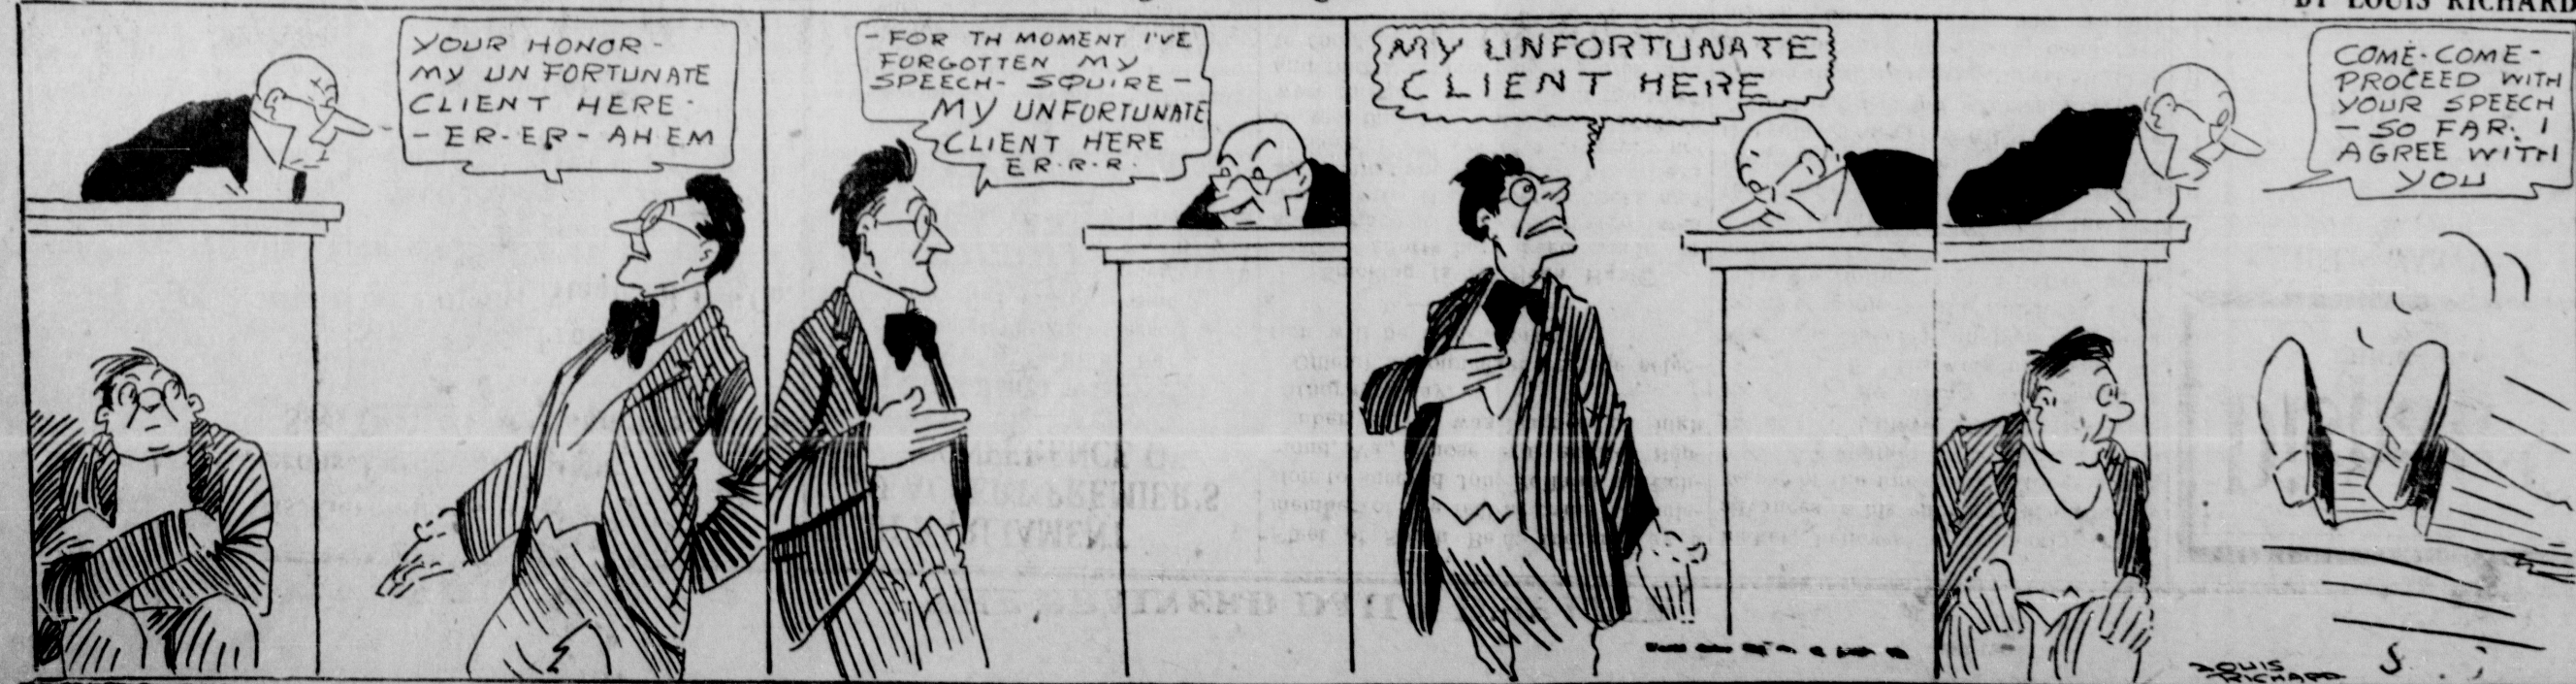

Local merchants have anticipated the wants and desires of their patrons. They have searched the style centers of the world for its choicest modes. The results of their efforts will be shown in regal displays in the near future in their Fall Openings, formal announcements of which will appear soon in the
